

Appreciation Letter

Malikov Nardaulet Nurlanuly

We express our deep gratitude and appreciation for the excellent academic performance throughout the academic years.

You can rightly be called one of the best students of the Kazakh-British Technical University, as you have made a significant contribution to the development of student life and achieved the highest grades. We will always remember you as a responsible, conscientious and proactive member of the team, with great leadership skills.

We wish that your inherent purposefulness, hard work and self-organization lead you to exceptionally great victories.

Thank you for all the years of hard work in your studies, diligently fulfilling all the tasks and responsive attitude towards the university.
